

Open Grant Application

Burgum Foundation is currently welcoming applications for the 2022-2023, and 2023-24 school years.

This application is for any rural school district, administrator, or organization fill out. By filling out this application you will not need to write a formal grant proposal, this application will serve as the grant proposal.

Burgum Foundation will review the applications as received.

School District: _____

Your name and position: _____

Program name and description: _____

Dates and/or duration of program: _____

Approximate number of participants: _____

Estimated cost of program: _____ Grant request from Burgum Foundation: _____

Have other sources of funding committed to the cost of this program? Yes Not yet

Additional notes to consider: _____

